

SA1205102

George Edwards (British 1694-1773 - Four Engravings

Price

GBP 295

| USD $398 | EUR 345

Item Reference: SA1205102Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

Set of four lovely engravings of birds by George Edwards. Here is a description of each bird. The black and white butcher bird from Surinam and a small butterfly from China etched from nature of their natural size (1757); The Horned Owl from Athens supposed to be sacred to the Godes Minerva; The crowned eagle from the coast of Guinea (1754); A Species of Heath-cock, or grouse, from Pennsylvania, where it is called a pheasant (1752) set of four engravings in colour Each 23.5 x 18.5cm (actual engraving - 46cm x 38.5 including frame) Please excuse light reflection in the glass

Internal Ref: BJF

Seller Details

Gill Coe Antiques & Interiors

Dorking Surrey United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 158 955

International Tel: 07860 158 955

