Description

Magnificent Vintage Boucheron Ridged Hoop Earrings in 18ct Gold, French c.1960s. A magnificent pair of vintage Boucheron earrings, embodying the bold elegance and refined craftsmanship for which this prestigious Parisian house is renowned. Crafted in rich 18ct yellow gold, these striking earrings are designed as sculptural ridged half hoops, their flowing textured lines catching and reflecting the light with a warm, luxurious glow. The form is both strong and elegant — a hallmark of Boucheron's distinctive design language. Designed as clip-on earrings, they sit securely and comfortably on the ear, offering a confident presence while remaining easy to wear. Their proportions are perfectly balanced, making them equally suited to daytime sophistication or evening elegance. Fully signed and numbered, and accompanied by their original Boucheron presentation box, this pair represents a rare opportunity to acquire a fine example of vintage French designer jewellery. Pieces of this calibre, from such an esteemed maison, are increasingly sought after and continue to hold enduring appeal among collectors and connoisseurs alike.
