Description

This is a rare set of eighteen Georgian mahogany dining chairs, offering a magnificent solution for large-scale dining with elegance and period charm. Dating from the late Georgian period, these chairs are finely crafted from solid mahogany, each chair features a classic ladder-back design with reeded horizontal rails, squared legs, and traditional H-stretchers, reflecting the timeless balance and symmetry of Georgian style. All eighteen chairs have been newly and professionally upholstered in a neutral grey linen, a tasteful and versatile fabric that enhances the warmth of the mahogany while offering a fresh, updated look. The upholstery has been finished to a high standard, ensuring both comfort and durability for regular use. This large set is ideal for those seeking to furnish a grand dining room, boardroom, or refined hospitality space with period authenticity and visual impact. Sets of this size and quality are increasingly difficult to source, making this a rare opportunity for collectors and interior designers alike.
