Description

Seascape Watercolour Painting by Rose Emily Stanton (1838-1908) Harbour & Boats Brief Description: This is a beautiful, original Seascape Watercolour Painting by the 19th-century listed British artist Rose Emily Stanton (1838-1908). The fabulous scene depicts a bustling harbour, with moored sailing vessels, active people and a picturesque thatched cottage on the waters edge. The work is both signed and dated by the artist, 1876. It is mounted within a good quality (later) glazed and gilt moulded frame, and it is offered in an overall stunning original condition. Rare to find such a 19th-century subject matter painted by a female artist. Attributes: Watercolour on Paper Signed: 'E.S.' Dated: 1876 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall excellent original condition commensurate with age.
