Description

A beautiful antique French painted double bed frame, elegantly decorated in the neoclassical taste with applied mouldings and central Wedgwood Jasper-style plaques. The soft painted finish enhances the refined detailing, including swags, ribbons, and classical ornament. Both the headboard and footboard feature striking blue and white classical plaques, creating a refined focal point ideal for traditional or contemporary interiors. Importantly, the bed comes complete with its original side irons, making it ready for practical use - a key advantage often missing from antique beds. Raised on turned legs, this is a highly desirable piece of antique bedroom furniture, perfect for those seeking a French painted bed, double bed frame, or statement antique interior piece. Measurements: Height: 139cm Width: 157cm Depth: 211cm A complete and elegant antique bedstead, combining decorative appeal with functionality.
