Description

A charming 19th-century mahogany drop-leaf occasional table, finely detailed with boxwood inlay. The oval top features twin drop leaves, opening to create a generous surface when required. Below, a pair of cupboard doors provide practical enclosed storage, each framed with delicate inlaid borders. The table stands on tapered square supports with splayed feet, giving the piece a light, refined stance typical of the period. A versatile and well-proportioned antique, ideal as a lamp table, bedside, or elegant accent in any traditional interior. Open 90.5cm wide

Internal Ref: SAI4131
