Description

This beautiful Vintage ring features a 1.13ct approx round Blue Zircon gemstone, modelled in 9ct White Gold. As a gemstone, Zircon is noted for its high refractive index and excellent fire. Zircon has a higher refractive index than sapphire, ruby, spinel or tanzanite. Zircon also has impressive fire, with a dispersion rating nearly as high as diamond! This quality ring would make a great engagement ring or the perfect addition to any collection. STONE Blue Zircon METAL 9ct White Gold RING SIZE UK - M / US- 6.25 MEASUREMENTS Zircon measures 6.5mm x 6.5mm Stands 5.8mm off the finger WEIGHT 1.4 grams HALLMARKS 9CT CONDITION This lovely Zircon solitaire remains in good condition. The band shows some minor thinning, and there is visible evidence of prior resizing. There are minor abrasions and surface wear to the Zircon, consistent with age. Item Number - 10995
