Description

A truly amazing pair of Georgian French paste shoe buckles, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and elegance of the period. What makes these particularly remarkable is that all of the original paste stones are fully intact. With pretty openwork detail to the metal and bead work to the frames. Each buckle sparkles beautifully, with the stones expertly set to catch the light in a way that closely mimics fine gemstones. The condition is outstanding, especially considering their Georgian origins, making them highly desirable for collectors and lovers of antique accessories alike. These buckles comes presented in a Milly's Marvel's gift box. All other boxes are for display purpose only. DIMENSIONS - 4.8cm x 4cm WEIGHT - 27.9grams HALLMARKS - Stamped "France" to the back CONDITION - Both buckles are offered in very good antique condition. All stones are present. Some wear to the silver metal at the back. Please review all photos carefully.
