Description

Type of Artwork: Oil Surface: Board Artist and Signature: Signed G Severini Subject: A striking mid-century abstract composition featuring bold, vibrant tones of red, yellow, and deep blue. The painting is constructed with confident, rhythmic brushwork, creating movement and energy across the surface. Subtle areas of raised paint add texture and depth, enhancing its visual presence. The piece embodies the classic mid-century modern aesthetic, making it an ideal statement artwork for both contemporary and retro-inspired interiors. Approximate Age: Dated 1959 Framed or Mounted: Framed as shown; frame included free of charge. The painting is in good vintage condition, with age-related wear consistent with its mid-20th century origin. The surface is stable, with some areas of natural paint texture and minor signs of age. The frame shows expected wear but remains decorative and ready to hang. Please refer to the photographs for full condition detail. Important Note on Attribution: This painting is signed "G. Severini" and dated 1959. We are unable to attribute it to Gino Severini, and as such is offered as the work of an unidentified artist bearing this signature. ...
