Description

An attractive George 3rd Mahogany chest of drawers, circa 1800. Nice small proportions and with the added benefit of a brushing slide, as such many are using these as a home office (work top and plenty of storage). The 4 drawers are graduated in size and are set with brass swan neck handles. All the bracket feet are original and some of the drawers have working locks with keys. Due to sun fading this chest has just been re polished and is now back to its best.
