Description

A fine and impressive large Victorian flame mahogany chest of drawers, showcasing beautifully figured grain throughout with rich colour and a polished finish. The configuration comprises one long drawer over two short drawers, above three long graduated drawers, offering generous storage. All drawers are oak-lined and retain their original locks. The chest is fitted with classic black turned handles that contrast elegantly with the mahogany. It stands on a solid plinth base with traditional bun feet. A substantial and heavy piece of furniture, ideal for those seeking both practicality and period charm—please check measurements carefully to appreciate its generous proportions. In very good condition, ready for use in the home. W 127.5cm (50.25") D 55.5cm (22") H 132cm (52")
