Description

A superb and rare antique pair of French Malachite and burr thuya wood occasional tables, early 20th Century in date. The circular tables are made from rare burr thuya wood and are surmounted with highly decorative malachite tops with silver plated borders. The cabinets are each fitted with two useful drawers, each with beautiful malachite and silver plate knobs, the thuya with striking ebonised banding. The tables are each raised on three silver plated bronze legs decorated with garlands and acanthus, they are joined by shaped stretchers centred with malachite dishes. There is no mistaking the unique quality and design, which is certain to make them a talking point in your home and sure to take pride of place in your lounge or reception. Condition: In excellent condition, please see photos for confirmation.
