Description

A superb antique French oak sideboard buffet cabinet, dating to circa 1880, crafted from solid oak and richly hand carved throughout. This impressive 19th century French sideboard showcases exceptional craftsmanship, with deep relief carvings depicting traditional hunting motifs including game birds and harvest imagery. The upper section features a decorative carved back with open shelving, ideal for display, while the lower section offers practical storage with three drawers and three cupboard doors enclosing spacious shelving-perfect for dining room storage, silverware, or linens. Finished in a warm, original oak patina, this piece retains its authentic character and aged charm, making it a standout example of French antique furniture. A highly decorative and functional antique oak buffet cabinet, ideal for traditional interiors, country homes, or statement dining spaces. Dimensions: Height: 226 cm Width: 201 cm Depth: 56 cm
