Description

A fine antique rosewood drinks cabinet / cocktail cabinet, beautifully crafted and featuring an elegant marquetry inlaid panel depicting classical cherub motifs. This highly decorative piece combines functionality with refined design, making it ideal as a home bar cabinet or serving table. The upper tier features a raised serving gallery with inlaid detail, supported by turned columns, while the base cabinet opens to reveal practical storage for bottles, glassware, and bar accessories. The fold-out side flaps extend the surface area, making it perfect for entertaining and drinks service. Raised on elegant legs with original castors, this antique rosewood cabinet is both mobile and versatile, suitable for use in living rooms, dining areas, or period interiors. A superb example of antique English furniture, offering both decorative appeal and everyday usability as a statement cocktail or drinks cabinet. Dimensions: Height: 107 cm Width: 60 cm (extends to 92 cm) Depth: 37 cm
