Description

A refined antique French Empire style side table, crafted in rich mahogany and adorned with elegant ormolu mounts. The circular top is complemented by a classical frieze featuring decorative gilt motifs, embodying the timeless symmetry and sophistication of Neoclassical design. Raised on three slender, fluted legs with original castors, the table is united by a shaped undertier, adding both structural strength and additional display space. The proportions and detailing make this piece ideal as a side table, occasional table, lamp table, or decorative accent table in both traditional and contemporary interiors. Its versatile size allows it to work beautifully in a living room, hallway, or bedroom setting, while the quality craftsmanship reflects the enduring appeal of 19th century French furniture. A stylish and practical piece, perfect for collectors or interior designers seeking an elegant antique Empire table with strong decorative presence. Height 76cm width and depth 39cm
