

SA1205989

Early stone bowl and grinder.

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1205989*Date of manufacture: Pre 16th century

Description

A very early stone bowl hewn from stone with primitive decorative bands to the top and a roughly fashioned spout, complete with a stone grinder which has worn smooth. Similar bowls are discussed in The Archeology and Prehistoric annals of Scotland, written by Daniel Wilson in 1851 which at the time were considered to be ritualistic. Similar examples have also been found in Wales. British or Romano British, probably iron age height 12cm (4 3/4") Width 20cm (8")

Seller Details

Martin Murray Antiques

Near Eye Suffolk United Kingdom

Tel: 07970 625359

International Tel: +44 7970 625359

