Description

A crisply carved and line-inlaid Edwardian mahogany three-leaf screen. The finely carved cresting features armorial detailing and patera and the three-screen frame has double-sided brass hinges. The overall condition is very good with minor knocks and scratches to the framework. The carving is undamaged, and the whole is structurally sound and of fine quality. Please note the previous individual screen panels have been removed and will need replacing with fabric/paper/artwork.
