Description

Antique 20th century fine-quality Welsh dresser in oak, a very well-made and good-quality piece. The dresser features three open shelves in the upper section, five central drawers, and a spacious shelf at the base, offering excellent storage and display options. It stands on turned legs and showcases gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, reflecting exceptional craftsmanship. The dresser retains all its original decorative brass handles and comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. A very nice and desirable example that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. In great condition, this Welsh dresser is a perfect addition to any home, combining timeless style, practicality, and classic elegance.
