Description

Antique 20th century set of six ash Windsor dining chairs, a beautifully crafted and highly desirable set. Very well made and of the finest quality, each chair is a single piece with elegant, curved backs, showcasing gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. The chairs are stood on turned legs with a decorative stretcher, providing stability and adding to their classic charm. Solidly constructed and in great condition, this set is both practical and visually appealing. A very desirable example, perfect as a standalone set or to complement a dining table. Please note a pine dining table is available in a separate listing that pairs beautifully with these chairs—see our profile for more information.
