Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean-style display cabinet in oak, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and traditional design. The cabinet features a glazed front with two doors, opening to reveal three adjustable shelves, making it ideal for displaying books, ceramics, or decorative items. It stands on a plinth base and comes complete with a key. Beautifully decorated with Jacobean-style mouldings, this piece has great character, enhanced by its rich colour and stunning natural grain throughout. A highly desirable example in a practical and attractive size. In good condition, presenting well and ready for use. A perfect addition to any home, combining both style and functionality.
