Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean-style wardrobe in oak, a finely crafted piece of excellent quality with superb attention to detail. The wardrobe has two doors opening to a thoughtfully designed interior, featuring multiple hanging hooks and a mirror. It stands on turned legs and retains its original handles, complete with a key. The exterior is beautifully moulded with traditional Jacobean-style detailing, while the oak displays a rich colour and striking grain throughout, adding warmth and character. Its generous size makes it both practical and visually impressive. In good condition and ready for use. A highly desirable and elegant example, perfect for adding style and functionality to any home.
