Description

Antique 20th century oak sideboard, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The top section features three drawers, while the base includes two double-door cupboards. The left-hand cupboard contains a single shelf, and the right-hand cupboard offers an open compartment with two additional shelves, providing versatile storage options. The sideboard retains all its original handles and fittings and is beautifully carved with intricate detailing, reflecting high attention to craftsmanship. It stands on square legs and displays a gorgeous natural grain with rich colour throughout. A highly desirable example in good condition, combining functionality with classic design. Perfect addition to any home, ready for use and display.
