Description

Late C19th/ early C20th Italian Venetian cut and etched glass framed mirror with a ruby red border. Decorative Venetian-style mirror with a central arch-top bevelled edge mirror plate, surrounded by a border of ruby red glass detailing and applied cut and etched glass elements. The top surmounted by a tall decorative crest with corresponding red motif to the centre. In good original condition with some atmospheric degradation to the glass edges and border. One minor decorative element missing to the bottom rhs. The verso fitted with the original solid backboard and a hanging chain. A statement mirror of larger scale and proportions, with great presence and style in the flamboyant tradition of Venetian glass-making. H 57" W 26" D 4" Venice, Italy c.1900
