Description

Antique 20th century serpentine writing table in mahogany, a well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The table features a gracefully curved serpentine front with two front drawers, each retaining its original brass handles, providing practical storage. It stands on tapered legs, enhancing its refined appearance. The mahogany displays a beautiful natural grain with stunning figuring, adding character and visual appeal. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example, combining functionality with classic style. Perfect addition to any home, ideal as a writing desk or decorative furniture piece.
