Description

Antique 19th century Victorian Dickens desk in mahogany, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and intricate design. The desk features eight small drawers in the upper section, an angled writing slope at the centre. Nine drawers at the base, arranged as four smaller drawers on either side with one large central drawer. The top has a green leather writing surface, adding both elegance and functionality. The desk is supported on two pedestals with a plinth base and casters. Designed with practicality in mind, it comes apart into three sections for ease of transport. Retaining all its original handles and fittings, the desk displays a beautiful mahogany grain and fine detailing throughout. A highly desirable example, in good condition, that truly needs to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. Perfect addition to any home, combining historic charm, functionality, and classic Victorian style.
