Description

Antique 20th century glazed bookcase in mahogany, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and attention to detail. This elegant and highly desirable example offers both practicality and timeless appeal. The upper section features glazed doors opening to reveal two shelves, ideal for displaying books or decorative items. Below this sits a single central drawer, providing additional storage, and a blind two-door cupboard to the base, enclosing a further shelf for concealed storage. The piece retains all of its original handles and fittings and comes complete with a key. It stands on a plinth base and is beautifully decorated throughout, with a rich, warm colour and stunning natural grain that enhances its overall character. A very desirable and versatile piece, perfect for adding both style and functionality to any home.
