Description

A fine antique French burr walnut jardinière, dating to the late 19th century and crafted in the elegant Louis XV style, combining decorative impact with practical use. Beautifully veneered in richly figured burr walnut, this antique planter stands on graceful cabriole legs and is adorned with high-quality gilt bronze ormolu mounts, including scrolling foliate decoration and detailed corner mounts. The shaped frieze and refined proportions reflect classic French craftsmanship. The interior retains its original metal liner, making it ideal as a jardinière, indoor planter, or decorative side table feature. Perfect for displaying plants, floral arrangements, or as a statement piece in both traditional and contemporary interiors. A versatile example of 19th century French antique furniture, suitable for use as an antique planter, decorative table, or luxury interior accent piece. Dimensions: Width 80cm x Depth 46cm x Height 70cm Internal liner: Width 46cm x Depth 23cm x Height 14cm
