Description

A beautiful and practical antique folding table, crafted from solid oak and featuring a classic gateleg design. This elegant piece showcases a rich, warm wood grain with lovely natural character throughout. The oval top folds neatly, making it ideal for flexible use in smaller spaces, while the turned legs and traditional stretcher base add both strength and timeless appeal. A highly versatile table - perfect as a side table, occasional table or compact dining piece. In very good vintage condition. Minor surface wear consistent with age and use, adding to its authentic charm. Structurally solid and fully functional folding mechanism.
