Description

Victorian mahogany desk chair This elegant Victorian mahogany desk chair is a fine example of 19th century craftsmanship, combining comfort, durability, and timeless style. The chair features a classic tub-shaped design with a curved back and armrests, upholstered in richly patinated buttoned leather. The deep buttoned leather upholstery is finished with decorative brass studwork, enhancing its traditional character while providing a comfortable and supportive seat. The warm tones of the leather are beautifully complemented by the solid mahogany frame, which displays a rich grain and polished finish. Raised on turned legs with original castors, the chair offers both stability and mobility, making it ideal for use as a desk chair, study chair, or accent piece in a traditional or contemporary interior. Perfect for a home office, library, or study, this Victorian leather chair combines practical function with classic antique appeal.
