Description

This Victorian Bird's Eye Maple Wardrobe boasts high-quality bird's eye maple, a highly figured wood known for its distinctive grain pattern, the warm golden tones of the maple are beautifully complemented by darker inlaid accents, creating a striking contrast. The wardrobe is a low and compact design, making it an ideal storage solution for spaces with lower ceilings. It features a three-door front, each door with inlaid panels, neatly finished with subtle mouldings, and the wardrobe stands on a sturdy plinth base. The interior reveals a beautifully crafted storage arrangement, the left section features 3 pull-out sliding trays, below the trays are two large drawers. The right section provides a hanging space, complete with a brass rail and hooks. The interior is constructed from solid mahogany, adding a rich contrast to the lighter maple exterior. The wardrobe is in very good condition. This item comes in 3 pieces, the top lifts of its plinth base and the middle door is a pin door.
