Description

Usually much larger, this is a small desk-top walnut writing cabinet made from Walnut and the doors inlaid with two central fan inlays and the doors framed with Boxwood stringing. The front is inlaid with a brass shield-shaped escutcheon which houses the working tassel key. The doors open to reveal a fully fitted interior, perfect for personal stationery. There is a tilting/removable pen tray with storage below for additional pens, pencils, sealing wax, nibs and the like; to the right of this is a brass topped inkwell. There is a solid brass pin which is removed to allow the drawer below to be opened, this means once the doors are closed and locked that the drawer also cannot be opened. The interior of the drawer is narrow, measuring 9 3/4" x 3". A super and unusual box, with a footprint measuring 12" x 6" and stands 9 1/4" tall at rear. Excellent condition.
