Description

An excellent quality Sterling Silver hand mirror. The back is decorated with a lovely engine turned design and decorative border around a central cartouche. The glass itself has a good quality beveled edge. It is clearly hallmarked for Birmingham, 1926 and the maker Kimberley & Hewitt Ltd. It is in good condition for its age. There are no major damages and the glass is in good order. There are a few light surface marks and a small dent on one edge but nothing detrimental and it displays well. The silver has been gently cleaned and polished and the mirror is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Length : 9 1/2" / 24cm Width : 5 1/4" / 13.5cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
