Description

Rare 19th Century Engraved Glass Rummer - British Bulldog on Union Jack - "What I Gain I Can Hold" Offered for sale is a magnificent 19th-century glass rummer, featuring exceptionally detailed wheel-engraving. The bowl depicts a stout British Bulldog standing defiantly atop a Union Flag (Union Jack), set above the patriotic Napoleonic-era motto: "WHAT I GAIN I CAN HOLD." This piece is a classic example of British patriotic glassware, likely dating from the mid-to-late 1800s. Form: Bucket-form bowl on a short, multi-knapped stem with a sturdy circular foot. Condition: Excellent antique condition. The glass is clear with no chips or cracks. Light shelf wear to the base consistent with age (please see photos). Dimensions: Approximately 15cm high. Craftsmanship: The engraving is of high quality, showing great texture in the bulldog's coat and precision in the flag's linework. Provenance: Brought From Laurie Leigh having original paperwork
