Description

A matching pair of Clarice Cliff soup bowls with matching saucers dating from the 1930s. They are decorated with hand painted bands in shades of brown and orange. The soup bowls have two small handles and they sit nicely on the saucers. They are fully stamped and signed on the underneath of both pieces "Clarice Cliff. Wilkinson Ltd England". They are in good condition for their age. The colours have remained bright and vibrant and there are no damages or restoration. There are some light surface marks and minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and they display well. Approximate Measurements : Bowl : 1 3/4" / 4.5cm high x 6 1/2" / 16.5cm wide Saucer Diameter : 6" / 15cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
