Description

A magnificent large and impressive equestrian bronze by Franz Bergman depicting a saddled hunter, and displaying the detail one would expect from Franz Xavier Bergman (1861-1936), arguably, the most famous of the Viennese bronze artists. Signed underneath with the Bergman 'B. in an amphora vase and numbered. This is one of the largest Bergman equestrian subjects we have come across and stands on its original green and black stepped marble base. The horse measures 14 inches wide and 11.5 inches high. The overall height including the base is 15.5 inches. Mid brown patination, some lighter areas of wear to saddle and flank. Excellent original condition. Overall size including base 39.5cm high x 38 cm wide.
