Description

A striking antique mahogany centre table with marble top, featuring a beautifully figured circular top set with a substantial grey marble surface. The table stands on a bold pedestal base with shaped supports and carved scroll details, terminating in classic claw feet, giving it both presence and stability. Crafted in rich mahogany, the base displays exceptional grain and colour, perfectly complementing the natural tones of the marble. This style of antique pedestal table is highly sought after for its versatility, working equally well as a centre table, dining table, or statement hall table. The generous proportions make it ideal for both decorative and practical use, whether placed in a reception room, dining space, or large hallway. A timeless piece of antique furniture combining craftsmanship, scale, and elegance. Dimensions: Height 76cm x Width 116cm x Depth 116cm
