Description

An exceptional large antique French carved oak armoire wardrobe, dating to the 19th century and crafted in the elegant Louis XV style. This impressive piece features richly detailed hand carving throughout, including a striking central crest with birds and floral motifs, beautifully panelled doors, and intricate decorative borders. The proportions are substantial, making it a true statement antique wardrobe, ideal for both storage and display. The solid oak construction is enhanced by a deep, warm patina, showcasing the natural character and grain of the timber. Internally, the armoire offers generous storage space with shelving, making it practical for modern use while retaining its historical charm. The craftsmanship and scale of this piece reflect the quality associated with fine French antique furniture. Perfect for use as a bedroom wardrobe, hall cupboard, or feature cabinet, this armoire brings timeless elegance and presence to any interior. Dimensions: Height 234cm x Width 154cm x Depth 63cm
