Description

A decorative French, Louis XV style gilt bronze antique mantel clock dating from the late 19th century. The case has scroll leaf design, with beaded and fluted detail and floral and scroll engraving, flanked by two impressive lions heads. The case has an inset porcelain panel to the centre, hand painted with two cherubs within a pink and gilt border. The clock is surmounted with a gilt bronze urn with porcelain body, and it is finished with a porcelain dial with Roman numerals and a floral centre. The movement is an eight day duration, which strikes the hours and half hours on a bell. The movement has outside clicks to the backplate, which are a signature of the maker Delettrez. The clock movement has the makers name - Jean-Baptiste Delettrez. The clock movement has been cleaned and serviced and comes with a 12 month guarantee. Height - 42 cm (16 ½ inches) Width - 25.5 cm (10 inches) Depth - 15 cm (6 inches) Circa - 1880 Jean-Baptiste Delettrez was born in 1816, he was a renowned clock maker of the 19th century.
