Description

A refined pair of English porcelain vases and covers by Ridgways, produced in the post-1891 period and decorated in the firm's well-known "Old Derby" pattern. This design reflects a late Victorian interpretation of Japanese Imari decoration, combining strong colour with a disciplined layout. The surface is richly decorated in cobalt blue, iron-red enamels and gilding on an ivory ground, with stylised floral motifs and angular reserves. The octagonal rims, domed covers and scroll handles create a balanced and elegant silhouette. Ridgways developed "Old Derby" as a commercially successful revival pattern inspired by earlier Derby porcelain, and it remains one of the most sought-after designs produced by the factory. A complete pair retaining both covers, a feature often lost and increasingly difficult to find. Measurements Vase 1 – height 25.8 cm; diameter 10.8 cm; weight 577 g Vase 2 – height 25.8 cm; diameter 10.8 cm; weight 556 g Condition Vase 1 – excellent condition with minimal wear to the gilding. Vase 2 – a small hairline crack inside the neck and traces of overpainting inside the neck; otherwise excellent condition. Shipping & Packaging The item will be shipped...
