Description

A George I walnut chest of drawers, circa 1710. The quarter-veneered figured walnut top with feather-banded border, over two short and three long drawers with feather-banded borders to match the top and within cushion-moulded edges, upon a stepped-plinth with bun feet. The drawers are oak lined. A nice chest of small proportions which has been fully restored at sometime in the past and has replacement bun feet. The handles are later Georgian replacements.
