Description

A generously sized early Victorian writing table, presented in excellent showroom condition. Crafted from richly coloured mahogany, the table features a new hand-dyed red leather inset top with decorative tooled edging. Designed as a true partners' desk, it allows two people to work opposite each other, with each side offering three drawers along the frieze, complete with original locks and escutcheons. The piece stands on robust turned mahogany legs, finished with brass castors for ease of movement. A practical yet distinguished table, combining elegance with functionality.
