Description

finely carved and richly gilt wall mirror in the Rococo Revival taste. The frame is executed in wood with a warm, burnished gold finish, displaying an abundance of asymmetrical scrolling acanthus, foliate flourishes, and floral motifs characteristic of the Louis XV style. The oval mirror plate is encircled by a bold, twisted rope moulding, providing a structured contrast to the exuberant openwork surround. The crest is particularly elaborate, featuring a pierced cartouche framed by opposing C-scrolls and surmounted by a stylized plume of acanthus leaves, while the sides and apron are animated with deeply undercut scrollwork and naturalistic leaf carving. Secondary floral clusters and shell-like elements add further movement and depth, demonstrating a high level of craftsmanship and attention to detail. The gilded surface shows subtle tonal variation and light wear consistent with age, enhancing its decorative appeal and lending an attractive patina. Dimensions Height: 44.5 inches – 113cm Width: 28.5 inches – 72cm Depth: 5.5 inches – 14cm
