Description

A beautifully proportioned Edwardian waterfall bookcase in excellent antique condition with light, age-appropriate wear. The bookcase made from high-quality rosewood with superb graining and a rich, well-developed patina. The top is crowned with an ornately carved crest, featuring a central roundel with foliate carving and softly scrolling edges — a charming, unmistakably Edwardian touch. Below, the three graduated shelves are each slightly recessed, creating the classic waterfall profile, and are finished with elegant brass gallery rails that add a decorative lift. Shaped, rounded sides give the piece a gentle softness and refined silhouette. Strong and stable, it is ideal for books, small collections, or curated decorative displays. A versatile and characterful bookcase that brings warmth, craftsmanship, and period charm to any interior.
