Description

Large Victorian Mahogany Breakfront Four Door Wardrobe Item Code: LC1425 Description: An impressive Victorian mahogany breakfront wardrobe of grand scale and outstanding presence, dating to the mid 19th century. This substantial piece is designed in a classic breakfront form, offering both strong visual impact and excellent storage capacity. The wardrobe features four full-height panelled doors with a central breakfront section incorporating a bank of drawers beneath double cupboard doors. The overall design is bold and architectural, with well-balanced proportions and a strong sense of symmetry. The mahogany displays a rich, warm tone with attractive figuring throughout, enhanced by clean lines and quality craftsmanship. Internally, the wardrobe offers generous hanging space to both outer sections, with the central section providing drawers and shelving, making it highly practical for modern use while retaining its period character. There are minor losses and signs of historic repairs, along with age-related wear, all consistent with use. These are not detrimental to the overall appearance or functionality of the piece and serve to enhance its authenticity. Key Features:...
