Description

A small chest of drawers made of solid hand sawn oak comprising of four long drawers standing on stile feet. The front is of a geometric design framed by graduating rectangular friezes. The sides are panelled with a generous return moulding. The handles are original with the bottom escutcheon a later replacement. The chest disassembles into two for easy transportation. All the drawers run smoothly and are solidly made. A very attractive honest piece with a great depth of colour and patination.
