Description

Antique 20th century bow-front sideboard in mahogany, a beautifully crafted piece of good quality with elegant proportions and timeless appeal. The top section is fitted with three drawers, while the base provides generous storage through three cupboards, including single-door cupboards to each side and a central double-door cupboard with a shelf inside. Raised on tapered legs with classic spade feet, this sideboard retains all of its original handles, fittings, and key. The reeded edge to the top adds a refined finishing touch, while the mahogany showcases stunning figuring, rich colour, and a beautifully patterned grain throughout. Its graceful bow-front design gives the piece a sophisticated silhouette, making it both practical and visually striking. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable example and a perfect addition to any home.
