Description

Antique 20th century bureau in burr walnut, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The upper section opens to reveal a nicely fitted interior, ideal for writing and storage, and comes complete with a key. The base features three drawers, all retaining their original brass handles. The bureau stands on graceful cabriole legs and displays stunning burr walnut figuring, especially to the front, with gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout. A highly desirable example in a practical and attractive size, combining functionality with classic style. Presented in good condition and ready for use, making it a perfect addition to any home.
