Description

Antique 20th century Art Deco oak wardrobe by Wrighton, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The wardrobe features two front doors that open to reveal an upper shelf and a hanging rail beneath, ideal for practical storage. The top corners are beautifully decorated with linenfold carvings, adding distinctive Art Deco character. It retains all its original handles and fittings, comes complete with a key, and stands on sturdy bracket feet. The oak displays a gorgeous natural grain and rich colour throughout. A highly desirable example in good condition, combining style, functionality, and decorative appeal. Perfect addition to any home.
