Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian writing table in mahogany, a very well-made piece of good quality, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The table features a raised gallery to the top and three front drawers, each retaining its original brass handles. The surface and drawers are beautifully inlaid with delicate satinwood stringing, highlighting the refined Edwardian detailing. It stands on tapered legs with a supporting stretcher, displaying gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, emphasizing the quality of the mahogany and workmanship. A highly desirable and rare example, combining practicality with timeless Edwardian elegance. Presented in good condition and ready for use, making it a perfect addition to any home.
