Description

Antique 19th century French open armchair in walnut, an exquisite example of fine craftsmanship and elegant design. The chair features expertly carved detailing throughout, with graceful curves and refined ornamentation, complemented by sumptuous light green upholstery. It stands on turned walnut legs fitted with brass casters, combining style, practicality, and period charm. The walnut displays a rich, lustrous grain and warm colour, highlighting the quality of the timber and the skill of its maker. A rare and highly desirable piece in great condition, perfect for adding sophistication and character to any home. Truly a chair that must be seen in person to be fully appreciated.
